TITANIC: CAMERON OVERBOARD

52' | June 2027

Temps Noir & ARTE GEIE

A popular auteur film, a project without limits, and a true cultural phenomenon, Titanic is way more than just a blockbuster. Thought by James Cameron as a “metaphor for the end of the human race”, the film paints an enlightening picture of both the time and industry in which it was born.

OLIVER STONE, THE OUTSIDER

52'

Roche Productions & ARTE France

Oliver Stone is the guilty conscience of an America he never hesitates to expose. The director of Platoon, Wall Street, Born on the Fourth of July, JFK, and Natural Born Killers sees cinema as a quest for truth bordering on obsession, shaped by two major traumas that have forever marked America: the Vietnam War and the assassination of Kennedy.

JESSICA CHASTAIN'S GREATEST GAME

52'

Brotherfilms & ARTE France

Discovered on stage, Jessica Chastain quickly rose to prominence in cinema with standout roles in Zero Dark Thirty, Interstellar, and Molly's Game. Balancing auteur films and mainstream productions, she has built a demanding career centered on strong female characters.

TOM HANKS THE ORDINARY HERO

52'

Talweg Production & ARTE France

Who doesn't like Tom Hanks? The actor has made it his specialty to portray ordinary men who, when faced with extraordinary circumstances, become heroes. For 40 years, he's been embodying an idealized vision of America, uniting people of all backgrounds. In an increasingly divided country, is that role becoming harder to play?

DEMI MOORE THE ETERNAL COMEBACK

52'

Slow Production & ARTE France

Demi Moore made a stunning comeback in The Substance, winning her first Golden Globe after 45 years in Hollywood. Once dismissed as a “popcorn actress” then a “cougar,” she faced Hollywood’s harsh beauty standards. Beyond the tabloids, her career shows a resilient, socially engaged actress whose personal struggles shaped her bold choices.

TERMINATOR: OF MACHINES AND MEN... AND ONE WOMAN

52'

MDAM & ARTE France

The story and analysis of an iconic 6-film saga about the relationship between humanity and the dangers of artificial intelligence. A surprisingly visionary series featuring a heroine named Sarah Connor who became one of the most legendary characters of pop culture as well as a feminist icon.

DIE HARD: A HELL OF A HOLLYWOOD SAGA!

52'

Tournez s'il vous plaît & ARTE France

The Die Hard saga, whose first installment was released in 1988, revolutionized action cinema with its raw intensity, sharp wit, and a groundbreaking hero played by TV star Bruce Willis. A fresh, humanized take on the genre, it set a new standard for high-stakes thrillers.

THE UNSTOPPABLE SHIRLEY MACLAINE

52'

Slow Production & ARTE France

With her quirky charm, Shirley MacLaine is one of Hollywood's most unique stars. Known for her passion and discipline, she's reinvented herself for decades, proving that there's still room for older actresses in Hollywood.

GLENN CLOSE A FEMINIST FORCE

52'

13 Productions & ARTE France

Glenn Close, known for playing iconic, unconventional women like Cruella in 101 Dalmatians, is a committed feminist who inspires through both her roles and her beliefs, encouraging reflection on women's place in film and society.

TIM BURTON MONSTERS WITHIN

52'

Haut et Court Doc & ARTE France

This portrait captures a singular filmmaker who explores childhood wounds and fantasy through strange, outcast characters. His films reflect a self-portrait and invite us to confront our own "monstrosity."

MAKING TARANTINO

52'

Morgane Production & ARTE France

Quentin Tarantino is a groundbreaking auteur and pop-culture icon whose bold films blend sharp American storytelling with personal and historical influences. A master of stylish, subversive cinema, his work remains both critically acclaimed and culturally iconic.

BRUCE LEE ENTER THE DRAGON

52'

Haut et Court Doc & ARTE France

With Enter the Dragon, Bruce Lee broke barriers as the first Asian actor to lead a Hollywood film, challenging Western stereotypes. Amid the Vietnam War, he became a hero for the marginalized, creating a lasting myth that still inspires today.

NICOLAS CAGE: HOLLYWOOD'S MAD GENIUS

52'

MDAM & ARTE GEIE

Nicolas Cage, a risk-taking actor devoted to constant experimentation, remains one of Hollywood's most creative and beloved stars. Long an industry outsider, he's faced setbacks, made comebacks, and never stopped pushing boundaries.

JAMES DEAN THE EMOTIONAL MAN

52'

10.7 Productions & ARTE France

James Dean, who died at 24 after only 3 films, remains a timeless icon. He redefined masculinity by embracing his vulnerability and his flaws, becoming an anti-hero and a symbol of freedom, inspiring generations even 70 years after his death.

HOLLYWOOD BABYLON

52'

Wichita Films & Histoire

Rapid cultural and social change fueled Hollywood's rise in early 20th-century America, turning cinema into a global force. But the freewheeling 1920s gave way to scandal, and as the Great Depression hit, a moralistic backlash swept the country.
